[H.R. 3396]

For the relief of George David Maxwell, doctor of medicine.

George D.
Maxwell.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, $23,500.00, to George David Maxwell, doctor of medicine, of Athens, Georgia, in full settlement of his claims against the United States for reimbursement of amounts which he paid pursuant to the malpractice claims settlement entered into by Doctor Maxwell and Sam Kielwein on December 5, 1978. Such malpractice claims arose from the operation Doctor Maxwell performed on Lizzie Ethel Kielwein, the spouse of Sam Kielwein, while Doctor Maxwell was an employee of the United States Navy.

SEC. 2. No part of the amount appropriated in the first section of this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved December 22, 1980.
